Beside you through grief's journey

Hope for the Holidays

Hope for the Holidays returned on December 7, 2023 after a 3-year break. The event brings our community together to help manage what can be a very difficult season for some when a loved one is not here.

It was a beautiful evening of music provided by The Amici Singers Choir and local singer/songwriter Pol Kinsella alongside speakers who shared with us laughter, tears, and connection.

And let's not forget the delicious food from The Bannock House and Munch Catering. We are excited to offer Hope for the Holidays annually once again, save the date December 5, 2024 in your calendars!

A Legacy of Love

Caring Hearts was deeply honored to receive an unexpected and incredibly generous donation from the Estate of Harold P. Howard. There could not have been a better way to begin 2024 and Caring Hearts is SO grateful!

Harold and his dear wife Jeanette began a long and impactful legacy of supporting their community. Together for over 51 years, their experiences in hospitals led them to many years of donating to Saskatchewan health care. Jeanette sadly passed away in 2012 and Harold committed to continue his wife's vision of giving back to the community. It is through Harold's humility and kindness that Caring Hearts became one of the recipient's of their legacy of giving back. Until his passing in 2021, Harold encouraged others to do the same and support our community.

The kindness of Harold and Jeannette will go directly to grief support groups, counselling services, and the Caring Hearts Grief Camp.

"If you're in a position to help others after you're gone, you should.

It's as simple as that"

Harold P. Howard

Ambiguous loss in its simplest form is a loss that is unclear and has no clear closure. Whether loss from person missing or health conditions like dementia taking someone away, ambiguous loss has a profound impact. Unlike concrete losses, it lacks clear definitions or resolutions, leaving us without coping rituals.

The absence of guidelines for emotions and behaviors contributes to emotional exhaustion causing heightened anxiety and conflict.

Over time, side effects emerge, including diminished trust, negative perceptions of authority, strained family communication, and dysfunctional coping mechanisms.

Ambiguous loss comes with its own forms of grief and may require specialized care. Missing Persons Support Group (including MMIWG2S) starts March 7 & Ambiguous Loss for Caregivers is coming soon.
